SONG CONVENTION

MALMÖ 2020

What a present Santa Mausie gave us last year: a brand new hotel! We sure needed it, because of our growing attendee numbers (and Mausie and Iris' growing collection of cheese). Let me welcome you to our new venue, Clarion Hotel Malmö Live! Which comes with a bigger main stage, over 20 floors, the Sky Bar, five additional hotels nearby, convenient access to food and transportation, and just a stone's throw away from historic attractions as well as the vibrant urban environment of Malmö!

To celebrate our first NordicFuzzCon in Malmö, we're inviting you to our very own Furovision Song Convention! I bet you're wondering if NFC 2020's theme of Furovision is because Malmö hosted Eurovision back in 1992 and in 2013? Not really, it's more of an elaborate setup to get the STEW to sing at some point during the convention. But rather than subjecting everyone to that, why not listen to other wonderful animals from this year's charity, Katthjälpen? They do amazing work caring for and rehabilitating local homeless cats, which I think includes vocal training. Why not come over to their shelter on one of our scheduled tours to see what they do or support them through one of the charity events?

To help us with the song convention, please welcome our special guests, Pointedfox and Burr Koda – who are both amazing artists in their own right. You might know Pointedfox from his work on the Disney films Zootopia (Zootropolis), Moana (Vaiana) and Big Hero 6, as well as Blizzard Entertainment games such as Overwatch and World of Warcraft. As for Burr, you might know him from his work on the worldwide sensation song, that totally hasn't been copyright claimed on our YouTube channel, "Cheese Party". Please give them both a warm welcome and don't miss out on the amazing events they will be hosting!

Speaking of events, we also have many other exciting events lined up for you! Come join a cultural tour of three Malmö museums, watch the Swedish premiere of the Sonic the Hedgehog movie (now with fewer human teeth), and come aboard our new party boat for all you party animals. You can also meet new friends in one of the numerous meet-and-greets this year, enjoy a fancy meal at the Skybar or Taqueria, try to touch da video-projected fishies, interact with our friends over the ocean at Anthro New England, play some amazing video and arcade games and, if you're feeling overwhelmed, we are now introducing a quiet corner where you can go to recharge.

I hope that you will enjoy this year's NordicFuzzCon – and Furovision – in our new venue. Now it's time for me to touch da fishy! How elusive can a projected fish be?

Chairman

Guest of Honour

Our Guest of Honour for 2020 is the amazingly talented Pointedfox. He studied animation in San Francisco and learned from artists at Pixar, Pointedfox graduated at the top of his class in 2013. Shortly thereafter, he was accepted to Walt Disney Feature Animation as a lighting and compositing artist, where he learned to draw with movies such as Big Hero 6, Moana and Zootopia.

It was during his work on Zootopia that Pointedfox acquired his skill - and love - for drawing anthropomorphic animal characters in his own unique and recognisable style. He now works as a CG and lighting artist for Blizzard, Pointedfox brings his talents to a new arena where he has worked on beloved games such as Overwatch, Hearthstone and World of Warcraft. He will be hosting a panel talking all about working for big studios and how it has affected his personal work and what you can learn!

Encouraged by his friends, he started sharing his work online under his Pointedfox moniker. He is known for drawing pointy noses with his adorable toony style. He also frequently draws his girlfriend bunny character, Cider. She is an amazing furry artist herself and is also attending NordicFuzzCon. Additionally, he has since branched out into 3D sculpting as well. He will be showcasing his sculpture making progress and sharing the tools, tips, and tricks he has learned along the way as a self taught hobbyist.

This visit to us here at NFC is Pointedfox's first ever trip outside of the United States so please give him a warm welcome to Sweden and to Europe as a whole! We know you'll all love what he will bring to his panels and to the convention. Twitter users can find him at: @pointedfox where they can follow his personal hobby art and keep up to date with his goings on and you can find Cider at: @CiderBunArt for her amazing art.

Northern Light

Bear witness and prepare to be serenaded by the catchiest music of all time. As this year we are beary proud to announce Burr Koda as our Northern Light for NordicFuzzCon 2020!

Burr is a sound engineer, musician and producer who has kindly contributed music to the convention since 2015. As part of Baxxter & Burr – together with Miles T. F. Baxxter – he has composed classic furry hits like “Fursuiters: Gotta Catch ‘Em All!”, “Go NFC Go!”, “Winter With You”, and of course “Cheese Party”. Burr has been an active musician for many years and is currently living in Oslo, Norway. He plays the drums in the hard rock band Orbiter and has also played other instruments in a wide range of projects and genres including rap, electronic music, metal, jazz, and experimental music.

As Northern Light at this year's convention he will be hosting a panel, a music workshop and an exclusive concert with Baxxter & Burr.

At the workshop, musical furries of every genre and skill level are encouraged to attend, as we attempt to create the next NFC hit together! Burr will be bringing some basic recording equipment to try and capture the untamed, beastly, warm, sticky energy of a furry con. Bring your instrument or just yourself, and come have a good time! (Warning: Don't be afraid of embarrassing yourself, because Burr assures us he's a master at being embarrassing, and it's going to be hella fun anyway)

For the first, and probably only time ever, Baxxter & Burr will perform all their songs in concert, live on the café stage! Included in this set will be the three sparkling brand new songs that make up their newest EP "Heat", due to be released during NFC. Be the first ones to hear these new con anthems, or come to enjoy some classic cheesy furry songs.

Helping Cats Find a Better Life

The streets of Malmö is a place many stray cats call home, they struggle each day to find food, shelter and safety. Some are lost, some are no longer wanted, and some have lost their owners under tragic circumstances. Thankfully a group of volunteers takes these lost kitties in and give them a new chance in life.

Katthjälpen in Malmö is a non-profit association that works to improve the lives of homeless cats. The association was formed in 2002 and is entirely dependent on gifts, regular donations, and different kinds of sponsorships in order to continue working.

They consist of 32 volunteers that work at the shelter twice a day, every day. Volunteers feed the cats, clean litter boxes, clean workspaces, give medication, and any extra care if needed. After the primary tasks have been completed, it's time for the best part of being a volunteer; spending time with the cats, playing, socializing and giving lots of cuddles. They believe that with regular contact with humans and other cats, they will progressively become more social, secure and confident.

Besides taking care of the cats, there is work to be done outside the shelter as well. Volunteers regularly transport cats to the vet and to foster homes, arrange rescue operations, and making sure that the cats in need get the care they deserve!

The shelter is able to house approximately 33 cats. The cats that live at the shelter all have their own unique stories. Often they have had a rough life outside and Katthjälpen put a lot of love, energy and time into socializing them; in order to make the cats comfortable around humans again. Building trust takes time, with many cats end up staying for longer.

Katthjälpen operates on a 'no kill' principle, which means that they do everything possible to give the cats an honest chance at life. They never kill healthy cats because they are deemed as "too aggressive, shy or feral" by others. The cats are allowed to stay in the shelter as long as needed. If they are not adopted, the shelter will instead be their new home.

All cats that are taken in to the shelter are vaccinated, chipped, and neutered before moving to their new home. They always do a home visit before an adoption is approved in order to find the best home for each cat. Once a cat is adopted, they stay in touch by receiving regular updates on them. This year, more than 30 cats have found their forever-homes, but Katthjälpen could do so much more!

Being a no-kill shelter means that in some cases, tens of thousands of kronor are spent on veterinary expenses on a single cat. Before taking a cat in, they must evaluate whether they can afford to cover the expenses that cat will incur. This is where NFC and you come in! Together we can help Katthjälpen by providing them the means to help more cats!

Remember, big donations change lives. But every little helps! There are many ways you can help us:

Haunted House

High Live 4 • Friday, 14:00 - 17:00, 20:00 - 23:00 • Saturday, 14:00 - 17:00, 20:00 - 00:00

Our devilishly entertaining hosts from the Kingdom of Demonia have what they call a “Once in a Lifetime*” opportunity for our Furovision attendees. As hosts this year they have an offer of an exclusive backstage tour at the awards, letting you have an access all areas pass to the very guts of the dark ceremonies** which make the awards such a success. YOU will have a chance to meet some of the winners and losers of the competition, and despite the dark lords of music not winning this year, they assure us there are no hard feelings.

The NordicFuzzCon Haunt is now in its fourth year at the con, and combination of interactive theatre, escape room and traditional haunted house. An experience not to be missed!

* Tour members are instructed to have a full will and testament, as well as signing an accidental death waiver.

** Please note that any actual black magic you may witness is not to be repeated, recorded or revealed lest your tongue be ripped from your mouth and your lungs forfeit.

What's on in 2020

Mobile App

You furs don't have phones? Oh, you do... Well then, make sure to check out the official NordicFuzzCon app! Available for iOS and Android by simply searching for “NordicFuzzCon” in your preferred app store! In order to log in, use the same credentials as you would on the NordicFuzzCon web portal and you're good to go. What can you do in the app, you ask? Well, besides reading information about the convention, you have a handy map of the convention area and an automatically updated event schedule. Also make sure to play our Achievement and Catch Em All games. New feature for this year is the ability to leave feedback about the convention in the app itself!

Social Media

You can find all our major social media channels over at social.nordicfuzzcon.org – We got Telegram, Twitter, Facebook, Discord, and maybe other obscure super niche social media platforms!

Feedback

Meow, woof? Good, bad? Got any comments on the convention and your experience here – especially ones that NFC can use to make a better con in future years? Unlike the paper boxes of previous editions, a feedback box is now available 24/7 in your pocket and online, in the form of a quick feedback form on the NFC website with easy integration into the official app. Just type in your thoughts in a sentence or two, send them off, and the STEW will look at them for improving NFC 2021 and beyond. NFC depends on your voice!

NFC Live

Come on over to our stream (stream.nordicfuzzcon.org) where we will be streaming some of our events!

Social & Quiet Corner

Social butterfly or shy sloth? No matter how you prefer your conventions, we try to meet the different needs of different furs. This year we're introducing the fun social corner and the relaxing quiet corner. No matter which speed you move at, we got you covered.

The lovely social corner on floor 1 allows you to hang out and meet new and old friends, or simply just enjoying the company of other furs.

If the con moves a bit too fast for you and you need a break, head up to the quiet corner on floor 3. There you can relax in a quiet atmosphere with some comfy pillows and cuddly stuffed animals.

To find your next destination, you must think outside of hotel. It's the end for your journey, but could be start of someone elses. Your journey has already led you past the time and date, don't forget the previous password!

Sonic the Movie Screening

I'm sure you've all been excited about Sonic the Hedgehog finally coming to the big screen; and to make sure you won't have to miss out, we're offering a private premiere screening of the film! That's right, we've reserved our very own auditorium at a local cinema where you'll be able to enjoy the chili-dog eating pop-culture sensation together with other fellow NordicFuzzCon attendees.

The cinema complex is within walking distance of the venue. There will be a guided walk from the Clarion hotel to the cinema, at roughly 12:10 in the hotel lobby. The cinema opens at 12:30, where you can buy refreshments or use the facilities before the film starts. Fursuits are indeed allowed but we ask that you please remove your head during the film so that you won't block the view for those behind you, or that you sit at the very back (but not in front of the movie projector, please).

Date: Wednesday, February 19th
Time: 12:45
Price: 160 SEK
Language: English

A Tour of Malmö

NordicFuzzCon is moving to Malmö. This is a great city with so many exciting experiences to offer, and we want to share them with you! So we are organising a trip on Tuesday the 18th of February 2020 (the Tuesday before the convention).

You can choose between either: The full tour of Malmö(which includes the museums at the end of the tour) or just the museums

The Malmö Tour

You will get to see the charming squares and the old city, where we will make brief photo stops. Also, you will be taken to a fabulous viewpoint of the impressive Öresund bridge between Denmark and Sweden. Here you will have the chance to be in a photo with the bridge in the background. If you want to be in fursuit, then bring it along and get changed on the bus. In addition, you will see Malmö's tallest skyscraper, the Turning Torso, which is placed beautifully by the water.

The tour also includes a longer visit to the Disgusting food museum. They will open it exclusively to us furries, and in there you can see and experience a variety of dishes from around the world.

The Museum Tour

On this (part of the) trip you can see Malmö Castle (Malmöhus), the Aquarium and the Science Museum of Malmö – all three conveniently located at the same place. They are open for NFC attendees at 17:30 – 20:30, during which time we have exclusive access to all three.

It is an open area and you can walk around, fursuit and take pictures; and you are free to walk between the buildings as you see fit.

At this stage of the trip, the busses will leave us. But the three museums are right next to each other and only a 10-minute walk from the NFC venue.

Full Tour (Malmö + Museum)	The Museums
Time: 12:45 – 17:30 Price: 650 SEK	Time: 17:30 – 20:30 Price: 200 SEK

Medic & Security Teams

Like every year, your friendly neighbourhood medics and security furs are here to make sure you and everyone else have the best con possible! Here are some friendly reminders on how YOU can make your experience better:

- Remember the 6-2-1 rule: Make sure to get at least 6 hours of sleep (or more), 2 meals, and 1 shower a day!
- If you see a fellow congoer who is not feeling well or just sitting by themselves, go up to them and say hi! Ask how they are doing and if they need help - you never know, you might make a new friend!
- And at any time, if you feel bad in any way or think you or someone else needs medical attention, be sure to contact the nearest medic!

Our medics are always happy to help, give out band-aids, water, isotonic drinks, condoms and HUGS to those in need! Together with the medic team, the security team will do our best so all of you can have an amazing con! # The Cure for Stage Fright

"Next up," the speaker announced, "we have Priscilla Bourne with her heartfelt power ballad 'I Love You More Than Marmite!'" Paige briefly raised her head above the toilet bowl she had been hunching over, and let out a nervous sigh. "Only ten songs left, just my luck..." She flicked her long tail and slowly pushed herself upwards, then leaned against the wall, narrowly avoiding nudging the low ceiling light in the booth with her large, round ears. She only had seconds to recuperate before a strong paw rapped gently but firmly on the door from the other side. Tabitha, her bodyguard. "You ok in there, kiddo?" her strong voice reverberated through the door. Paige, despite muttering "no" under her breath, but still opening the stall door, was greeted with a muscular outstretched paw, which grabbed hers in a soothing, almost motherly way. The old but buff tigress led the way across the Green Room, being able to move much faster in her flexible uniform than the little mouse in full gala dress following her could keep up with. Stagecrew, waiters and musicians alike had the good sense to give leeway to the behemoth of a tiger, who was still accelerating across the crowded floor. Before Paige had time to stumble, however, they were seated in a corner couch, with Tabitha, ever resourceful, producing two beers for them from somewhere. They sipped in silence, but just for a moment.

"Stage fright again, huh?" Tabitha looked knowingly at the young star, having seen the symptoms a few times before, albeit to a much lesser degree. Then again, Paige had never performed to a sold out stadium before. When Paige preferred staring down into her bottle to responding, Tabitha continued. "It's ok to be nervous, you know. Overwhelmed, even. Not every day something like this happens." Paige stared a thousand yard stare across the Green Room, to the stage entrance through which she could already hear the announcer introduce the next song, 'Legend of the Hippie Hummus' by 'Mushrooms With A Cold'. "Seven songs to go, Tabby..." Paige finally spoke up. "I-It's too big. All of this is. I know, I did fine and got myself to this point in my life, but now that I'm here, it's..." She shook her head, a single tear visible on her cheek. "If it was only just the stage fright..." she continued. "I mean, busking on the subway, fine. When I finally got local pub gigs, that just meant more tips. It was still back home, where I knew the area, the people... and a few years later, here I am. Not only am I scared out of my mind, but I also don't know any of them. A sold out stadium, ten thousand anonymous faces... I won't even be able to see them with the stage lights in my face, Tabs. I might as well be singing in a large empty void which is silently judging me." Paige suddenly downed her beer in a few quick gulps. Tabitha, concerned, motioned for her to take it easy to no avail.

"Next up, we have 'Pagans of Österbotten', with 'Salmiakki Jonkun Autossa'". Tabitha had time to glance over her shoulder as a rowdy gang in elaborate makeup and PVC costumes ran by, the snow leopard in the lead giving her what looked like a wink through the small eye holes in his oversized mask. Paige, meanwhile, having gotten up from the couch during the last song, was downing her second beer while nervously making quick work of canapés and snacks carried around by the waiters who crisscrossed the room. Five songs left. A striped paw on a thin shoulder. "Deep breaths, kiddo. I know some of what you're feeling, believe it or not. You see, when I was a cub..." Paige, annoyed, snappingly interrupted her striped companion. "I know, I know! You've told me this story a thousand times, Tabs! How you were born the smallest of your litter, always got picked on. How you one day had enough, went to the gym, practically lived there for a decade, came out buff and now make a living standing guard for freaked out singers like me. How swell then, how good for you that you're able to push yourself like that! Well, news flash, not everybody's like that! We weren't all born with minds of steel, Tabs! I can't do this!" And with that, the young mouse stormed back to the couch, making visible waves as the stage technicians, a team of squirrels, quickly scurried away from her trajectory.

"And for our next act, we have the lovely Sven-Gregerzz, with 'Surströmming i Månskenet!'" The crowd could be heard letting out a cheer as the famous eurobeat act started playing what would inevitably become yet another raver favorite. Three songs to go. A couch. A mouse, leering at the floor. A discarded glass lying sideways near her feet. Not hers. A tiger, a friend, sitting down by her side once more. "It was far from a mind of steel, you know.", Tabitha finally continued. "Do you think I was motivated? Pumped? Sure, maybe on the first day. And maybe once in a while, every twentieth day or so. Most days I was so physically exhausted that I nearly gave up altogether. I wasn't motivated on a regular day, even less so when people laughed at me. People at the gym, my siblings at home. When I made mistakes. Even later, when I started seeing results, I was rarely in the mood to continue. Especially during tough times in my life, like when dad got sick, or during my divorce. Still, I somehow dug deep inside me and found something which kept me going, even with no motivation, no drive, when all I wanted was to do anything else. There is no cure for the fear, for the fatigue, but there is... this. Whatever it is. Call it bravery, call it stubbornness, call it just being too dumb to quit. But I found it, and what's more, I think anyone can. If they dig deep enough." She smiled at Tabitha, who merely gave a ponderous look back.

"Wasn't that something? And up next, we have..." Two songs left. Paige got up, paced in circles for a bit, eventually settled on the discarded glass on the floor. After considering it for a few seconds, she kicked it with all her might across the room, cursing, then laughing out loud as she heard it shatter. She followed up with more profanities, then started pacing once more.

"And now, we have..." One song left. This was her cue to get ready. Paige stopped dead in her elliptical motion, shook her shoulders and gave out a deep sigh. Then she turned to Tabitha and let out a faint smile, which was answered with a grin and a striped thumbs up.

"Next up, Paige Winters, with..." Paige hesitated, dug deep within herself, looking for something she could not name. Then she stepped, one paw after the other, into an endless, ever judging void, more terrified than she had ever been before. As she let the void embrace her fully and started her performance, she could hear it echoing back at her. Not with a judgement, but with a resounding encouraging roar.
