Virtual Fursuit Parade

Schedule: March 20th, 18:54 - 19:00 (CET)

Setting the mood for the Fursuit Extravaganza weekend is the Virtual Fursuit parade, starting right after the opening. Watch as numerous fluffy, cute, cool, whimsical, and impressive-looking fursuiters wave and pose for the camera in their own unique ways – just like at a real in-person fursuit parade! Who said an online convention cannot have a parade?

The Virtual Fursuit Parade will be shown on the Main Stream right after the Fursuit Extravaganza Kick-Off, which starts at 18:45 CET. (Timmy)

Fursuit Charades

Schedule: March 20th, 20:00 - 21:30 (CET)

For most of us, fursuits mean fun – and what could be more fun than some fantastically foolish frolics in fursuits? We are delighted to announce that the firm fan favourite Fursuit Charades is fearlessly forging full steam ahead on Saturday, streaming in spectacular 2D.

Usually Fursuit Charades is held live in a fluorescent function room in the con hotel. For NFC@Home, our eight contestants will take it in turns to mime certain words on livestream, all the while judged by our pondering populous panel of judges (all two of them). But this isn't a purely static entertainment like the days of yore – we want you to take part! Via live chat, you can guess as many times as you like in real time, all while flagging fursuiters flail floppily miming the words “furlable”, “furibund” or “furculum”.

For frolics and follies, focus fully on Fursuit Charades, where floppy floofers floridly flourish and flappy fluffers flub flashily, in one fantastically frantic frenetic frenzy, at 20:00 CET this Saturday evening. (Nostradamus)

Furry Fortunes

Schedule: March 20th, 19:00 - 20:00 (CET)

Family Fortunes, Family Feud, Familjefejden; these are just a few of the names of the classic game show that has been shown all around the world. NFC@Home now presents Furry Fortunes, a fuzzier and fluffier version of the classic format.

Two teams face off in a battle of knowledge and understanding about furry culture. The questions are posed as "What would other furries say about ...?" With the answers based on actual statistics from our community. The numbers that may shock, amuse, or educate you – no matter which, this surely promises to be entertaining.

Just like the good old family-friendly TV shows of yore, this furrytainment extravaganza is broadcast at proper primetime: Saturday at 19:00 CET.

Powerpoint Karaoke

Schedule:

March 20th, 22:00 - 23:30 (CET)

What a year it has been, huh? We have had to get used to our meetings and presentations being online. Whether it be Zoom, Teams, or Hangouts, we have had to tackle the changes that an @Home approach to living has had.

Just like those online presentations, Powerpoint Karaoke is back – and now online! The event where your improv comedy skills combine with your business acumen as you deliver a presentation you've never seen before about a subject you have no idea about. Can you get investors interested? Then sign up to participate this weekend by going to this link: www.nordicfuzzcon.org/forms/powerpointkaraoke

If you think this sounds hilarious but don't want to be on our virtual stage, that's fine. Come along and watch, cheer on your favourites, and maybe you'll learn something important about life (probably not!). The event takes place at 22:00 CET on Saturday, so see you there... business casual attire. (Scratch)
